

Just moments prior to the drop of the first green flag of the night, race fans file into Modoc Speedway looking for a place to view the racing on the track

With the grandstands filled to capacity, race fans are content to stand along the fence entering Turn 1 to view the action on the track

Race fans were content to stand anywhere they could view the FASTRAK Racing Series Modoc 100

Parker Herring Jr illustrates exactly what slinging dirt means

Three wide in turns 1 & 2 was the norm throughout the night.....

.... as well as through Turns 3 and 4

One instance where 5 wide didn't work
